Somewhere on the beach

Somewhere on the Beach has amazing views of the Atlantic Ocean and White Street Pier. The property was completely remodeled in July 2021 and has a unique floor plan, allowing for more privacy between the bedrooms. Watch the sun set over the Atlantic from the living room or from the comfort of your bedrooms. The large private balcony has two seating areas as well as a dining table that doubles as a shuffleboard game. The full kitchen is nicely equipped for those who enjoy cooking. The morning coffee and tea station offers several choices. The unit also overlooks the beautiful pool and jacuzzi. Our complex sports three lighted tennis courts, including one clay court, the only one on Key West. Ask us about booking a court. An exercise room and a library are also available for use. Wireless internet is present in the unit. Our island amenities are walkable but there are many bike rental and sling shot companies as well as Lyft, Uber and taxis. Duval Loop, the local free bus, can be helpful to take you around the community as well. Restaurant choices are endless as are happy hour offerings. The live music is incredible across the island. Many local bands as well as some of the most recognizable names in music perform at a variety of venues. Be sure to look up special events that might be going on during your stay. Art studios on and off Duval offer amazing choices and have shipping options to get your new treasures home. The Key West Butterfly Conservatory, Key West Aquarium, Mel Fisher Museum of the shipwreck Atocha and sunset at Mallory Square are all must sees! Come join us and kayak, jet ski, offshore fish, visit the Dry Tortugas or just relax at the pool. Key West offers several beaches, including Fort Zachary Taylor, but bring your swim shoes as we are rockier than the mainland. The choices are endless and we are happy to recommend many activities and restaurants.
